

BAY BRITISH CARS ANNUAL SHOW 2010

This year we're doing things a bit different. Friday night we'll have a low country boil at Bob and Lynn Moore's museum downtown Panama City. This is free to all show entrants. We'll start about 6:00 and go from there.

Saturday we need cars in place when the show opens at 10:00. Around 11:00 the BBC ladies will host an English Tea for the ladies on the festival grounds. About 1:00 there will be a fun rally starting from the festival grounds. The rally will take you through historic St. Andrews and Panama City looking for clues. The rally will finish at the Panama City Marina. Once everyone is finished with the rally, everyone interested will cruise the short distance to a downtown restaurant for an early dinner around 4 or 4:30.

We're still going to have the people's choice award at the show that will be decided by voting in the "cans". We will have a can for each car with a number to match your registration number. Votes for the favorite car are 25 cents each (or whatever denomination you want to donate), and stuffing of the ballot cans is encouraged. All money collected in the cans goes to the Scottish Festival to support local charities. There will be a prize for the people's choice winner.

A host hotel is available through the Scottish Festival.

Unfortunately I had this all set up and ready to post on the web site, but my main home compute crashed hard, so I'm trying to regroup using my laptop. I'll try to get show registrations, maps, and more data up this weekend.
